

Mandala: World In Harmony

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center Welcomes
Venerable Karma Namgyel Rinpoche
Chenrezig Buddha of Compassion Sand Mandala

Friday, July 17th through Sunday, July 26, 2015

We are honored to welcome Venerable Karma Namgyel Rinpoche from Bhutan to offer rituals and ceremonies from the traditions of the Tibetan Buddhists. The Sand Mandala is one of the oldest sacred art traditions of the Tibetan Buddhism. Mandala is a Sanskrit word meaning World in Harmony. This Bhutanese Sand Mandala will be created by hand over about a week.

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center invites you to experience the ceremony and cultural traditions of Tibetan Buddhism through the construction and dismantling of a Sand Mandala, the form of this Sand Mandala the Chenrezig Buddha of Compassion.

During the week long events and construction of the Sand Mandala all are welcome to come view the construction and recite "Om Mani Padme Hung" a Chenrezig Prayer of Compassion which helps heal suffering and bestows love, compassion and generosity.

As soon as the Mandala is completed a deconstruction ceremony takes place and the Mandala is dismantled.

This dismantling demonstrates the principle of the impermanence of things.

We hope everyone will find time to view and share in this unique opportunity of experiencing the century's old Tibetan art forms and traditions.

You will have a wonderful chance to view and purchase high quality arts and crafts handpicked in Nepal, India and Bhutan.

LIST OF EVENTS

All events listed are free and open to all with a suggested donation, your donations are an expression of gratitude for the Rinpoche, and help cover costs incurred to make this event possible. Although there are suggested offerings associated with these events, all are welcome and no one is turned away due to financial reasons.

After each event for people wishing to receive a blessing by Rinpoche, khata, traditional white scarves will be provided for a small offering.
